

KRUG'S WISE MOVE WINS FOR ROURKES

Marty Sees Lou North Is Slipping and Calls Upon Thompson, Who Pulls Game From Fire.

KILDUFF PULLS DOUBLE PLAYS

Marty Krug had a hunch yesterday. Psychologists might have called it foresight, or good judgment, or presagement, but a base ball fan will insist it was a hunch, and some hunch at that. If Marty has the same brand of hunches while clicking the chips in a p. g. he'll make Rockefeller look like a piker in less than no time. As a result of Marty's hunch the de luxe Rourkelets waltzed away the de luxe Rourkelets waltzed away with the ball game, 3 to 2.

Marty's clever and successful manifestation of managerial knowledge was a change in pitchers. Lou North started the Iray for Omaha. Lou only permitted one run and two hits in the first three innings, but three times sensational support by his mates pulled him out of difficulties. Marty could see that Lou was in for a drubbing unless a change was made, so he gave the S. O. S. for Ceeil Thompson and his moist ball, and didn't give Lou a chance to get the drubbing. Cecil hustled to the rescue in a most expert manner and held the battling Grizzlies to a single run and s single hit in the subsequent six

In the first inning the Bears ounted one on North, With men on third and second and two out Shiel combed a drive into left that look two more runs. But Earl Smi made a shoestring catch and Nor was saved for the time being.

In the second stanza a ripping arted by Kewpie Kilduff, Oklahoma demon, gave North a a second time, and a second doub play with Oklahoma Pete playing the heavy part rescued him a third tim in the third inning. At this poir Marty Jerked Lou and the stuff was off as far as the Bears were concerned.

Omaha counted one run in the se end inning. A walk to Krug, Marty steal of second and infield outs b Krueger and Kilduff scored th Win in Seventh.

For six innings the Rourkovinians made but one hit off Johnny King, who halls from Alliance, Neb. But in the seventh the tail-end of the batting order put the blink on Johnny. With two down Ernie Krueger tripled and scored on Kilduff's hit through second Shan Thompson distinguished Shag Thompson distinguished aimself again yesterday by cracking a double to right, on which Kilduff went to third. He could have scored, but Marshall, coaching at third, wouldn't let him. Cecil Thompson, awever, delivered the hit which sent Kewpie home. That run proved to be the winning tally.

Denver scored one in the ninth without the aid of a hit, but it wasn't mough. The Rourkes and Grizzlies play again today at Rourke park.

Loch "Ringer" Is Discovered; None Other Than Allison

The identity of the "ringer" who hurled the Pete Lock base ball team to a victory over the city firemen Sunday has been discovered, And nine of the city's bravest fire laddies will be able, after they read this disclosure, to rest in peace. The hurler was none other than Mack Allison former St. Louis Brown and until re cently a member of the Rourkes.

The fire laddies have been Sherlock

Holmesing for the last thirty-six hours trying to find out who the Loch pitcher was. They knew he was a pitcher was. They knew he was a ringer, but they didn't know who he was. Now they may know.

When Allison arrived at the ball park Sunday he approached Sam Taylor, manager and captain of the knights of the nozzle Jones," he said, "I'm going to pitch for the Lochs."
Whereupon Taylor took him over and introduced him to the Loch play ers. "Know this fellow?" Sam asked Harry Wymore and Matherly. "Nope," they responded. "Well, he's your pitcher," declared

Sam, whereupon he went over and congratulated Scotty Keele, manager of the Lochs, on his impending vicyear and again this year, but you won't do it next year," he said to the gleeful Scotty. "I knew it was all off," said Sam, "when I saw he didn't even know his own catcher.

Whereupon the ball game was started and Allison, alias Jones, proceeded to whiff twenty-four firemen and permit two scratch hits and win the game, 2 to 1
